

GW Cybersecurity Scholarships	CyberCorps: NSF Scholarships for Service Information at a Glance
Tuition and fees related to academic program	100%
Annual Stipend	Undergraduate	$22,500
	Master's	$34,000
	Doctorate	$34,000
Annual Allowances	Professional Development:	$4,000
	Textbook:	$2,000
Summer Internship	Students must find a summer internship at an appropriate federal government employer. The CyberCorps SFS Program coordinates an annual job fair with several participating federal government agencies where CyberCorps students place into both summer employment and permanent employment. In some cases, students are permitted to work for state, local, or tribal government agencies; national laboratories; or federally funded research and development corporations. The CyberCorps SFS Program is committed to placing CyberCorps students into qualifying employment.
Service Requirement (Upon Graduation)	Students must also commit to one full year of federal employment for each year or partial year on scholarship. The federal agency may be the same or different from the employer for the student's summer internship.
Duration of scholarship	Up to 2 years for undergraduates or masters students Up to 3 years for doctoral studies or joint bachelors/masters programs
Minimum GPA	Undergraduate Students:	3.0
	Graduate/Doctoral Students:	3.2
Eligibility	United States citizens and lawful permanent residents Age 18 or older A rising university junior or higher Enrolled, accepted, or applied for full-time enrollment at GW with an undergraduate or graduate major in an area related to computer security and information assurance

Application Deadline	January 31st of each year
More Information	https://cspri.seas.gwu.edu/gw-cybercorps-scholarship-service